

OPEN CONTAINER WARNING

Alcoholic drinks that are prepared and served “to-go” must be in a sealed container. Alcoholic drinks served by this establishment may not be consumed in a motor vehicle or in public. Consumers must store alcoholic beverages out of reach within their vehicles.

This notice must be prominently displayed on the premises and present in whatever manner is necessary to ensure that the consumer purchasing, or a delivery person transporting such beverages is given notice of this warning.