(2) Each energy or large telecommunications utility shall make all reasonable efforts to prevent interruptions of service. All scheduled interruptions shall be made at a time causing minimum inconvenience to customers. In determining reasonable notice, the energy or large telecommunications utility shall consider the length of the planned interruption, the type and number of customers affected, the potential impact of the interruption on customers, and other surrounding circumstances. Notice may be given in writing, either via US mail or a door hanger on the affected premises, or by contact with the customer or an adult at the residence by personal visit or by telephone.

(4) In addition to the requirements above, electric utilities shall comply with OAR 860-023-0080 through 860-023-0160, which set additional requirements for electric service reliability and reporting.

(4) When a customer or applicant enters into an installment agreement for payment of a deposit under section (1) of this rule, the energy utility shall provide written notice explaining its deposit requirements. The notice shall specify the date each installment payment shall be due and shall include a statement printed in bold-face type informing the customer or applicant that utility service will be disconnected if the energy utility does not receive the payment when due. The notice shall also set forth the name and telephone number of the appropriate unit within the Department of Human Services or other agencies which may be able to help the customer obtain financial aid.

(B) If an eligible low-income residential customer or applicant account is current, the deposit will be returned by check mailed to the last-known address.

(C) For an eligible low-income residential customer or applicant that pays the deposit in installments per section (1) above, the energy utility will return the deposit within two billing cycles, after the last installment payment is made.

The notice shall contain the information set forth in OAR 860-021-0405(2)(a), (b), (c), (e), (f), and (g) and shall be served as required by 860-021-0405(5).

(67) When good cause exists, the Commission or the energy utility may provide more liberal arrangements for payment of deposits than those set forth in this rule. The energy utility shall keep a written record of the reasons for such action.

(78) If disconnection for nonpayment of a deposit occurs, the customer disconnected shall pay the full amount of the deposit, any applicable reconnection fee, late-payment fee, and one-half the past due amount before service is restored. The customer shall pay the balance of the past-due amount within 30 days of the date service is restored. (a) The energy utility shall review the monthly installment plan periodically. If needed due to changing rates or variations in the amount of service used by the residential customer, the installment amount may be adjusted to bring the account into balance within the time specified in the original agreement;

(b) If a residential customer changes service address at any time during the period of a time-payment agreement, provided that payments are then current and the residential customer pays other tariff charges associated with the change in residence, the energy utility shall recalculate the residential customer's deposit and/or monthly installment. The recalculated amount shall reflect the balance of the account at the previous service address and the average annual bill at the new service address for the months remaining in the original time-payment agreement. When installments on a time-payment agreement have not been kept current, a residential customer shall pay all past-due installments and any other applicable charges before service is provided at the new residence.

(3) A residential customer who selects an equal-pay arrearage plan will pay a down payment equal to one-~~twelfth~~ twenty-fourth the amount owed for past electric or gas service (including the overdue amount and any amounts owed for a current bill or a bill being prepared but not yet delivered to the residential customer) each month, for the next ~~44~~ 23 months, an amount equal to the down payment will be added to, and payable with, the current charges due for utility service. If a residential customer changes service address at any time during the period of an equal-pay arrearage plan, the plan continues. However, the residential customer must pay any past-due charges and all other applicable charges before the energy utility provides service at the new address.

(4) For small commercial customers, the energy utility shall offer a time-payment plan for up to a six month duration. The small commercial customer shall pay a minimum 10 percent down payment to enter into a time-payment plan.

(45) The energy utility and customer may agree in writing to alternate payment arrangement, including plans of shorter duration, provided the utility first informs the customer of the availability of the payment terms in sections (2) and (3) of this rule.

(6) During the term of the time-payment arrangement, a residential customer or small commercial customer whose financial condition changes during the term of a time-payment arrangement who defaults on a time-payment arrangement and who seeks to renegotiate payment arrangements, may do so at least one time under the same terms specified above.

(57) If a customer fails to abide by the time-payment agreement, the energy utility may disconnect service after serving ~~45~~20 days' notice.
