

The DHS Division of Medical Assistance Programs presents. . .

Outreach Training

Learn how to help people apply for OHP or FHIAP coverage

The Department of Human Services (DHS) is offering a FREE training for outreach facility staff members explaining both the Oregon Health Plan (OHP) and the Family Health Insurance Assistance Program (FHIAP – pronounced FEE-op). We will:

- Present an overview of each program
- Tell you who is eligible for coverage
- Show you how to help applicants complete the OHP forms correctly
- Answer your questions

Please join us for one of our 2009 trainings

All sessions run from 8:30 a.m. to 12 noon at the Human Services Building
Room 137 A & B (ground floor)
500 Summer St. N.E., Salem, OR 97301

Register early

First come, first served! We need your registration two weeks in advance. We'll send you a map and parking information with your registration confirmation. Bring photo ID to enter the secured DHS building. Security badge check-in begins at 8 a.m.
