Join us for the first FPEP Outreach Conference Call

At the recent FP Coordinators Meeting, we announced that we would be embarking on a statewide transit advertising campaign. The advertising campaign is scheduled to begin December 1st and we would like to offer assistance in helping you prepare. We're excited to hear your feedback about the campaign now that you've received the new FPEP outreach materials. We also want to hear from those of you in rural areas to identifying outdoor advertising locations that can be used to reach potential clients in your area.

The conference call will be held Wednesday, November 19th from 8:00am until 9:00am. Please dial: (888) 830-6260 and enter Participant Code - 962520.

Please feel free to contact Nicole Browning at 971-673-0489 or ashley-nicole.a.browning@state.or.us if you have any questions.

Differences in School Nursing and SBHC Nursing Practices in Oregon

This December 9th, 2008 webinar will explore the history of school nursing and how federal and state statutes altered required school nursing duties, thereby paving the way for School-Based Health Centers (SBHCs) in Oregon. Participants will learn about the differences in federal privacy regulations, HIPAA and FERPA, and the impact on these nursing specialties. Materials pertaining to the presentation will be available on the School-Based Health Center State Program's website <http://www.oregon.gov/DHS/ph/ah/sbhc/sbhc.shtml> under Webinar Documents on Dec. 4th.

Please see registration information attached.
