

The 2008 Student Symposium
 “A Climate of Change”
 FRIDAY April 11, 2008

Oregon Public Health Division, 800 NE Oregon Street Portland, OR
Co-sponsored by the Oregon Public Health Division, and the Oregon Public Health Association (OPHA)

8:00-9:00	Registration, continental breakfast	First Floor, Room 1A
9:00-9:30	Welcome & Introductions	Room 1A
9:30-10:15	Keynote Speaker: Thomas Bruner , Chief Executive Officer of the American Red Cross Oregon Trail Chapter Thomas Bruner is a nationally recognized non-profit leader with over 20 years of successful experience in health and human services, non-profit leadership and government relations.	Room 1A
10:15-11:45	Networking Opportunities (concurrent with poster sessions) Networking organizations: The Coalition of Community Health Clinics, Upstream Public Health, Growing Gardens, CTSE, Office of Sustainable Development; Oregon Environmental Council (others to be confirmed)	Rooms 1D & 1E
10:15-11:45	OMPH Student Poster Session	Rooms 1D & 1E
	2015-11:00 First Round of Posters Room 1D
	11:00 -11:45 Second Round of Posters Room 1E
11:45-12:45	LUNCH, catered by “Artemis”, a local sustainable business Luncheon with “Topic and Talk” Tables Private Networking Lunches with Oregon PH workers (for 40 students) Unnatural Causes, presented by Tricia Tillman	Room 1B PH Offices Room 1A
12:45-1:30	Keynote Speaker: Gordy Molitor , Executive Director for Green Empowerment Gordy Molitor has deep commitment to the eradication of poverty and has worked on international development for about 25 years both as Executive Director of Green Empowerment and as Country Director for CARE.	Room 1A
1:30-2:30	Oral Presentations First Group: TBA Second Group: TBA	Room 1A Room 1B
2:30-2:45	Break
2:45-3:00	Student Award Presentation: Best Poster and Oral Presentations	Room 1A
3:00-4:00	Hot topic: NBPHE “CPH Exam” Discussion presented by Alan Melnick, MD, MPH Dr. Melnick is a board member of the NBPHE, the Health Officer for Clark County, Associate Professor at Oregon Health & Science University and a member of the OMPH Program External Advisory Council.	Room 1A