Some businesses gain an hour of alcohol sales when DST ends

PORTLAND, Ore. – Oregonians will officially move their clocks backward one hour at 2:00 a.m. Sunday, Nov. 2 as Daylight Saving Time ends. As a result, some nightclubs, bars, taverns and other licensed premises that stay open until 2:00 a.m. or 2:30 a.m. will gain an extra hour of alcohol sales.

According to the Oregon Liquor Control Commission, some liquor licensees lost a half hour of liquor sales in March when Daylight Saving Time began.

Oregon liquor stores open on Election Day

The Oregon Liquor Control Commission reminds customers that liquor stores in Oregon will operate during normal business hours on Election Day, Nov. 4.

State law provides that liquor agents have the discretion to open or close on Sundays and holidays. Election Day is not one of the nine state holidays defined by state law.

Please call your local liquor store to determine their normal operating hours. Phone numbers are available at the OLCC's Web site:
