OLCC Bend office holds open forum town hall meeting

OLCC staff invite liquor licensees to share their views and ideas

Bend, OR – The Oregon Liquor Control Commission will host a town hall meeting Monday, June 8 at 2:00 p.m. at the ODOT offices, 63055 N. Highway 97 in Bend. All Bend area liquor licensees are invited to participate. The meeting will be held as an open forum for participants to share ideas, questions, concerns, and insights.

“The OLCC takes pride in its commitment to communicate with all licensees and stakeholders. Our overarching goal is to have licensed businesses that are safe for employees, customers, and neighbors,” said Jason Evers, Bend Regional Manager. “We’re looking forward to our town hall meeting and to hearing what’s on our licensees’ minds.”

Anyone interested in attending can RSVP by calling the Bend OLCC office at (541) 388-6292 x 221. One-on-one meetings can be arranged with Evers for those unable to attend.
