* The Oregon Supreme Court awarded attorney fees and costs in the Strunk case to attorneys representing Tier One members. The court ordered that a portion of those fees and costs (approximately $1.4 million) be deducted from the 2007 earnings otherwise credited to Tier One members. PERS calculated the gross amount that all Tier One members would receive if they were credited with the current assumed rate, 8 percent, and then subtracted the $1.4 million award from that gross amount. The remaining earnings were credited proportionally to Tier One members at a rate of 7.97 percent.
