

ADPC Treatment Committee Charter

11/13/2024

1 PURPOSE

The ADPC Treatment Committee works closely with ADPC staff and other partners to improve and support the substance use disorder treatment continuum within Oregon. The committee defines treatment as the “Clinical supports and services provided to individuals based on medical necessity with the goal of assisting these individuals to achieve short- and long-term recovery goals. These supports may involve a combination of services that include (but are not limited to) withdrawal management, medication, counseling, case management, assessment, service planning, and other engagement strategies with an established or increasingly promising evidence base.”

To support their charge, the committee will support the development, implementation, and maintenance of treatment strategies to grow a statewide, comprehensive approach to increase access to quality substance use disorder treatment, working to decrease barriers to treatment, and improving the collection and use of data to evaluate treatment access, processes, and outcomes, ultimately seeking to decrease disparities that exist across the state that impede access to these supports. The committee strives to support and maintain a treatment service continuum that contributes to a broader recovery-oriented system of care (ROSC), aiming to support more holistically those who experience substance use disorders with a goal of assuring that those who interact with this system of care are met with dignity, person-centered, evidenced informed, and culturally responsive services.

Recovery is defined by SAMSHA as:

“A process of change through which individuals improve their health and wellness, live a self- directed life, and strive to reach their full potential.” -SAMHSA

Recovery-oriented system of care is defined by SAMHSA as:

“A coordinated network of community-based services and supports that is person-centered and builds on the strengths and resiliencies of individuals, families, and communities to achieve abstinence and improved health, wellness, and quality of life for those with or at risk...” of substance use problems.”
