OSCI Contact Team Training

The OSCI Contact Team recently held an eight-hour training led by Sgt. Wadsworth. New and seasoned team members, along with Institution Counselors and the Reentry and Release team, attended. They shared information and collaborated on improving outcomes for staff and AICs. The training emphasized the importance of pre-determined boundaries when working with AICs and was a valuable opportunity for building positive relationships among the teams.

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT...

The July Director's Desk, Director Reese talks about aspects of successful reentry for adults in custody – and the work we all do to help in that effort.

Operationalizing Respect for All with Dr. Lee

DOC has hired Dr. Delmar Lee to conduct six, two-day training sessions across the state. He is a veteran of 22 years of service in the United States Air Force, where he served as a Master Instructor of Avionic Technology, Superintendent of Training, and Avionics Section Chief.

This comprehensive training program has already begun and will conclude in the Willamette Valley in September. The trainings are in-person and cover a range of critical topics to enhance leadership skills in the realm of DEI. Specific agenda items include:

- Operationalizing Respect for All
- Handling Difficult Conversations and meeting people where they are
- The Elements of Leading a Large-Scale DEI Effort
- Executive Commitment, Engagement & Sponsorship

By the end of September, approximately 150 employees will have participated in the training. According to staff who have already attended, the trainings are highly regarded, and the tone and tenor is welcome. If you have any questions about this training, please ask your FUM or reach out to Jennifer Black.
