

The following report is provided pursuant to ORS 350.345 for the 2023-24 academic year, which includes data from July 1, 2023, through June 30, 2024. For questions related to this report, please contact Oregon State University’s Title IX Coordinator, Becky Bangs, at Equal.Opportunity@oregonstate.edu.

a.	The total number of allegations of sexual misconduct that were reported to the institution’s Title IX coordinator by a student or employee of the institution against another student or employee of the institution during the previous academic year.	193
	Note: Data comprises allegations in which the complainant and respondent are both known to be OSU-affiliated. All reported allegations are included, including a considerable number where the reported concern does not suggest a policy was violated. Most reports are resolved through the provision of supportive measures and informal resolutions.

b.	The number of law enforcement investigations known to have been initiated during the previous academic year in response to reports of sexual misconduct that were brought forward by a student or employee of the institution against another student or employee of the institution.	17
	Note: Data includes all incidents that generated a police report in which the complainant and respondent are both known to be OSU-affiliated. Not all reports led to criminal charges being filed.

c.	The number of students and employees at the institution who were found responsible during the previous academic year for violating the institution’s policies prohibiting sexual misconduct.
	Students	6
	Employees	3

d.	The number of students and employees at the institution who during the previous academic year, faced academic or employment disciplinary action due to having violated the institution’s policies prohibiting sexual misconduct.
	Students	6
	Employees	3

e.	The number of students and employees at the institution who, during the previous academic year, were investigated, but found not responsible for having violated the institution’s policies prohibiting sexual misconduct.
	Students	2
	Employees	1

f.	The number of students at the institution who, during the previous academic year, requested supportive measures.	65
	Note: Supportive measures are offered to every complainant and to all respondents involved in a resolution process.

g.	The number of supportive measures requested by each student described in paragraph (f) above.
	One supportive measure provided	50
	Two supportive measures provided	15

h.	The number of supportive measures granted to each student described in paragraph (f) above.
	One supportive measure provided	49
	Two supportive measures provided	15

i.	The number of students during the previous academic year who took a leave of absence, transferred to a different institution of higher education or withdrew from the institution of higher education.
	Leave of absence	0
	Transferred	1
	Withdrew	2
	Note: Data comprises known matters where a student impacted by sexual misconduct took a leave of absence, transferred, or withdrew from OSU.

j.	The number of students or employees of the institution who reported experiencing sexual misconduct at the institution but who declined to participate or requested no investigation.
	Students	44
	Employees	1
	Note: Data comprises cases in which the information provided suggested a university policy may have been violated and, therefore, an investigation would be possible, but the impacted individual declined to participate or requested no investigation.

k.	The number of ongoing investigations into an accusation of sexual misconduct.	10
----	---	----