

Oregon Department of Agriculture, Food Safety Program

Pet Food: Laws and Regulations

If a pet treat or food made in Oregon contains raw or cooked meat you need to obtain a Pet Food Manufacturing License. If a pet treat or food made in Oregon does not contain raw or cooked meat, a manufacturing license from ODA's Food Safety Program is not required.

Other pet foods and animal feeds are managed by the Feed Safety Program.

Oregon Revised Statute \(ORS\) 619 covers Labeling and Inspection of Meat and Meat Food Products

Oregon Revised Statute \(ORS\) 603 covers Meat Sellers and Slaughterers

Oregon Administrative Rule \(OAR\) 603 Division 13 covers Slaughtering Establishments for pet or animal food