

INSTRUCTORS:

Deena Ryerson

Oregon Department of Justice

Amy Seely

Oregon Department of Justice

Sr. Trooper Robert Rutt

Oregon State Police

David Beatty

Oregon Department of Public Safety Standards and Training

COST:

FREE THANKS TO OUR SPONSORS!

OPEN TO LAW ENFORCEMENT AND PARTNERS

The Fatal 5 and More

Three Different Traffic Safety Training Opportunities

Register for Any or All

Wednesday, February 19, 2025

Location	Time	Title/Description	Presenter(s)
ODOT Region 5	8am-12pm	DUII Legal Update Including Case Law, Search and Seizure, and Mock Trial	Deena Ryerson, ODJ Amy Seely, ODJ
3012 Island Avenue La Grande, OR 97850	1:30pm-2:30pm	Vehicle vs. Pedestrian In conjunction with standard crash reconstruction and investigative protocol, a pedestrian crash reconstruction has several different elements and is extremely complex, escalating the importance of thoroughness and accuracy in the investigation and reconstruction processes.	Sr. Trooper Robert Rutt, OSP

Thursday, February 20, 2025

Location	Time	Title/Description	Presenter(s)
Baker County Conference & Event Center 2600 East Street Baker City, OR 97814	8am-12pm	A Deep Dive Into the Fatal Five Want a better understanding of the Fatal 5 and why traffic enforcement efforts make your community better? This training will go into depth about the role of police traffic enforcement in improving quality of life and safety in your communities. Relevant legislation updates and a discussion of available resources and agency needs will be included.	David Beatty, DPSST

Our Partners

TO REGISTER or
FOR ANY QUESTIONS:

Billie-Jo Nickens

billie-jo.m.nickens@odot.oregon.gov

Be sure to note which training(s) you are registering for