

CD 101 - The Basics of Communicable Disease Control October 29th, 2024 - 8:30 AM-3:30 PM

Mid-Columbia Fire & Rescue

419 E 7th St, The Dalles, OR 97058

AGENDA

Welcome and Introductions		8:30 – 8:40
Communicable Diseases: A Primer	Meagan McLafferty	8:40 – 9:55
List six types of communicable pathogens; describe the difference between droplet and airborne transmission and name three diseases typically transmitted via the airborne route; give an example of an incubation period and a communicable period.
Disease Reporting Define what diseases/conditions and deadlines; to include reporting law confidentiality.	•	9:55 – 10:55
Types of Lab Tests Learn about different types of labour mean, and how to use test results.	•	.0:55 – 11:35
Lunch		11:35 – 12:45
Investigative Guidelines Cite why public health investigates Investigative Guidelines can be use using the Investigative Guidelines t	Heather Hertzel diseases; describe how ed for disease prevention; practice to determine case status.	12:45 – 1:45
Investigative Guidelines Cite why public health investigates Investigative Guidelines can be use using the Investigative Guidelines t	Heather Hertzel diseases; describe how ed for disease prevention; practice to determine case status.	12:45 – 1:45
Investigative Guidelines Cite why public health investigates Investigative Guidelines can be use using the Investigative Guidelines t	Heather Hertzel diseases; describe how ed for disease prevention; practice to determine case status. Sarah King e at the Oregon State Public der them; to include specimen	12:45 – 1:45
Investigative Guidelines Cite why public health investigates Investigative Guidelines can be use using the Investigative Guidelines t Break OSPHL Overview Determine what tests are available Health Lab (OSPHL) and how to ord	Heather Hertzel Is diseases; describe how ed for disease prevention; practice to determine case status. Sarah King E at the Oregon State Public der them; to include specimen and how to transport specimens. Esources Heather Hertzel Ind testing algorithms to determine tions given example scenarios.	12:45 – 1:45 1:45 – 1:55 1:55 – 2:40