Update For: OMB Training Update

Message: For those who are attending the OMB Training today through Thursday, please make a note: OHCS has offered this training to a maximum of 3 attendees per CAA. Unfortunately, we mistakenly stated in the original program update that using a conference room and having additional attendees was an option. Wipflii has clarified that the training is at a discounted rate for a per-person cost and has asked that we share this with you to discourage the use of multiple attendees on one registration. Only the person who registered will be able to receive a certificate of participation or CPE credits (also only the registrant would be eligible to participate in the drawings and bingo).

We apologize for this confusion.
