UPDATE: OLCC Expands Recall of Cannabis Rice Cereal Treats

PORTLAND, Ore. – The Oregon Liquor and Cannabis Commission (OLCC) is expanding the recall of EliteXtrx rice cereal treat edibles that was initiated on January 23, 2025. The OLCC is issuing a new product recall of peanut butter rice cereal treat edibles sold under the name Elitextrx 1:1 Crispy that failed to disclose the presence of milk, a major allergen.

The OLCC is utilizing the state’s Cannabis Tracking System (CTS) to identify affected inventory and issue notices to retailers and other licensees to halt further distribution and sale. The product poses a risk to public health and safety and should not be sold or consumed.

The recall includes the flavor of rice cereal treats identified below:

Produced/Manufactured by ELITEXTRX, LLC (License # 030-1007127DC50)

Product Name	Label ID	Contaminant
“Marijuana Edible”: Peanut Butter	1634	Allergen: Milk
