While many boating sites are open year-round, many close seasonally, and others become unusable with low water levels or snow on unmaintained roads. Look at Trip Check, local weather, and water elevation forecasts. Know Before You Go. Oregon State Marine Board : Safety and Education : Boater Info : State of Oregon

Oregon Parks and Recreation Department (OPRD) is seeking public comment on a proposed rule change that would give the director greater flexibility to decide which parks charge a day-use parking permit fee. The proposed rule change would require day-use parking permit fees at all state parks but give the director the ability to waive the fee. If adopted, the director plans to waive the fee at most parks.

Public comments will be accepted until 5 p.m. November 1, 2024 and can be submitted:

- Online: <https://www.oregon.gov/oprd/PRP/pages/PRP-rulemaking.aspx>
- Mail: OPRD Department, attn: Katie Gauthier, 725 Summer St NE, Suite C, Salem OR 97301
- Email: OPRD.Publiccomment@oprd.oregon.gov

A public hearing will be held for the public to provide comments.

- Virtual Hearing: Wednesday, October 23, 2024, 5:30 PM. Register to attend the hearing at:
