

November 7, 2024

As facilities close with the fall season, the Opportunities and Access Report will "fall" in frequency for those who subscribe. The OAR will pause from January to March.

The next report will be published November 21st.

While many boating sites are open year-round, many close seasonally, and others become unusable with low water levels or snow on unmaintained roads. Look at Trip Check, local weather, and water elevation forecasts. Know Before You Go. Oregon State Marine Board : Safety and Education : Boater Info : State of Oregon

The Oregon Parks and Recreation Department (OPRD) is updating the Master Plan for State Parks in Curry County, which was last completed in 2003. The master planning process provides an opportunity to assess natural, cultural, and recreation resources, management goals, and community needs. They are excited to consider new possibilities for State Parks on the southern Oregon coast and appreciate your participation in this survey to better inform our work.

This survey is available until November 15th, so please take a few minutes to share your thoughts here: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/QMBPQC5>

The Oregon State Marine Board invites recreational boaters and others interested in the agency's work to gather and engage with staff to better understand the needs of boaters around the state and gather input on the agency's direction. Additional information can be found Oregon State Marine Board : Agency Open Houses : Agency Info : State of Oregon
