

1 this student to spend time at her home, including allowing the student to stay at her 2 home on weekends when she was not present, and met the student there when he 3 expressed the desire to have a romantic interest. Shepard also expressed to staff that 4 she believed the male student had romantic feelings for her. On one occasion Shepard
5 displayed to staff members where the same male student had labeled parts of her body
6 with ink, after Shepard fell asleep at her home with the male student present. Shepard 7 also showed staff members text messages from this student containing sexual 8 language, such as "suck dick".

- 9 3. While teaching at Auburn Middle School, you left the student teacher, Ashli Smith, in 10 your classroom without supervision. At times you directed the same student teacher to 11 use your personal vehicle to run errands for you.
- 12 4. While teaching at Auburn Middle School, Shepard created a sexually hostile work 13 environment for the student teacher under her direction, by exposing her to sexually 14 charged conversations, showing her text messages from a male high school student 15 with sexual language, and giving a gift of a sex toy to her.
- 16 5. While teaching at Auburn Middle School, Shepard conducted her private business, 17 Maximum Velocity All Stars, a cheerleading gym, during school time. Specifically 18 Shepard used school district computers and her school district email address to conduct
19 private business. Shepard also used the names of Salem-Keizer school in furtherance 20 of her business without permission.
