

1 2. On or about August 8, 2000, a female student attending Robert Farrell High
2 School gave Conway a written statement indicating that she was afraid of men and that
3 she had been physically abused by her father and sexually abused by her brother.

4 3. As a school employee, Conway had a legal duty to under ORS 419B.010 to 5 report suspected child abuse to the State Office for Services to Children and Families
6 (SCF) or to a law enforcement agency.

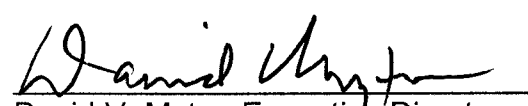

7 4. Conway failed to immediately report child abuse as required and defined in 8 ORS 419B. Conway accepts responsibility for his behavior and acknowledges his 9 failure to report was inappropriate.

10 Conway enters into this Stipulation of Facts with the knowledge that the Teacher
11 Standards and Practices Commission will adopt an Order of Public Reprimand for 12 neglect of duty. This Stipulation is contingent upon approval and adoption of the Order
13 by the Commission. If the Commission does not adopt this Order, neither Conway nor 14 the Commission is bound by these stipulations and Conway retains all rights to a 15 hearing on the allegations.

25 CONCLUSION OF LAW

26 In failing to immediately report suspected child abuse Conway failed to 27 demonstrate a commitment to use professional judgment and competency and failed to

1 follow district lawful and reasonable rules and state law. Failing to fulfill his
2 responsibility constituted gross neglect of duty as per OAR 584-020-0010(5) and OAR
3 584-020-0025(3)(a).

4 ORDER

5 The Commission imposes a Public Reprimand on Conway for neglect of duty and 6 this Order shall serve as the reprimand.
