On October 13, 2003, the Teacher Standards and Practices Commission (Commission) issued a Notice of Opportunity for Hearing to Rosemary Ellis Phillips, charging her with a violation of Commission standards. Ms. Phillips requested a hearing on October 20, 2003.

8

After a review of the matters alleged, Ms. Phillips and the Commission have agreed that their respective interests, together with the public interest, are best served by a stipulation to certain facts and the imposition of a public reprimand.

In entering into the stipulation set forth below, Ms. Phillips waives the right to a hearing to contest the allegations in the notice. This stipulation and order are contingent on approval and adoption by the Commission. If the Commission does not adopt this order, neither Ms. Phillips nor the Commission are bound by any matters contained therein, and Ms. Phillips would retain all rights to a hearing to contest the allegation in the notice.
