

- 1 October 18, 2014. On October 14, 2014, Davis made timely application for the renewal of 2 his license. The expiration of Davis' license was pended while an investigation could be
3 completed regarding affirmative answers to the Character Question portion of Davis'
4 application. During all relevant times, Davis was employed by the Eugene School
5 District.
- 6 2. On October 14, 2014, TSPC received Davis' application for the renewal of his educator
7 license. Davis answered affirmatively to questions three and seven of the character
8 question portion of the application, indicating Davis had been placed on leave by his 9 employer for alleged misconduct, and that Davis had been disciplined by a public agency
10 related to educational licensure. As required, Davis provided written explanation of his 11 affirmative answers. Davis' explanations prompted an investigation by the Commission.
- 12 3. Investigation determined that during the 2012-2013 school year, Davis engaged in a 13 series of inappropriate student interactions:
- 14 a. Davis deliberately and repeatedly mispronounced the Spanish word "pagina" to 15 rhyme with "vagina" in class.
- 16 b. Davis made comments about female students' clothing and failure to adhere to 17 the school dress code, which made those students feel uncomfortable.
- 18 4. Davis independently and promptly sought counseling and treatment related to the 19 alleged conduct.
