The Teacher Standards and Practices Commission (Commission) issued a Notice of Opportunity for Hearing on March 18, 2003, to Michael Sean Bradshaw, proposing to impose discipline under ORS 342.143. Mr. Bradshaw requested a hearing to contest the allegations in the notice. After a review of the matters alleged, Mr. Bradshaw and the Commission have agreed that their respective interests, together with the public interest, are best served by a stipulation to certain facts and an order imposing a public reprimand and a period of probation.

In entering into this stipulation, Mr. Bradshaw waives his right to a hearing and understands that the Commission will impose the discipline set forth in this order. This Stipulation and Order are contingent upon approval by the full Commission. If the Commission does not approve this stipulation and proposed order, it is understood that any waiver of rights by Mr. Bradshaw is therefore revoked. It is further understood that the statements contained in this stipulation may not be used by either the Commission or Mr. Bradshaw for any reason if the Commission fails to approve the stipulation and proposed order.
