Discipline Order

1 reckless driving; fleeing from or attempting to elude a police officer; driving while 2 your license was suspended, revoked, or used in violation of any license restriction;
3 or failure to perform the duties of a driver or witness to an accident.” With her 4 application Sanchez attached the following explanation:

5 “I haven’t been charged with any felonies, only for minor infractions related to 6 traffic, such as DUI, and negligent driving (misdemeanors). I can guess on the 7 dates of these charges, they occurred in Idaho and it has been at least [sic] two 8 years since the incident. If you need me to elaborate on it I can get my driving 9 record, or search to see if I still have documentation on it.”

- 10 3. On April 30, 2010, the Commission requested that Sanchez submit, as required, a 11 certified true copy of the disposition of the of the court charges in the case she 12 referenced. On May 10, 2010, the Commission received a more thorough 13 explanation of Sanchez’s criminal convictions, including disclosure of a conviction
14 for negligent driving in Washington, and two driving under the influence (DUII)
15 convictions in Idaho.
- 16 4. On June 15, 2010, the Commission requested that Sanchez send an alcohol 17 evaluation before granting Sanchez approval for student teaching. Sanchez said she 18 would send the necessary documentation. The Commission sent requests on at least 19 three subsequent occasions for Sanchez to submit additional information. When 20 Sanchez did reply she verbally requested withdrawal of her application. Sanchez was 21 informed that she would need to submit a letter requesting that her application be 22 withdrawn. To date Sanchez has not sent a written request for withdrawal of her 23 application.
